Action Taken

The Feedback form on the syllabus has large number of 6500 respondents. The IQAC Cell conducted a meeting of HOD's in the presence of the principal. The instruction was given to all heads of the departments to adopt the inclusive teaching methodology to enhance students participation in classroom teaching there by making syllabus more interesting and involving to the students

Report	Action Taken
More Number of elective courses should be offered	In National Education Policy students have been given a wide range of elective and vocational courses at graduate level
100 % Course should be complete in the classes	The head of the department have been instructed to keep a regular watch on progress of syllabus according to planner.
Methodology and curriculum enhancement should be given more importance	Methodology more interesting and student should have more participation in teaching learning in the class. ICT tools should be used by professor
